

The New York Times

It's taken 450,000,000 years to produce a range of this quality

Our Estate is blessed with ancient 450-million-years-old clay loam soils with decomposed Bokkeveld shale. This results in full-flavoured grapes of outstanding quality, allowing us to create complex wines with memorable length and depth.

